

GLASGOWS

Audio Visual Technician

Permanent full-time position

Glasgows, Unit 5, Centurion Court, Farington, Leyland, Lancashire, PR25 3UQ

www.glasgows.co.uk

Due to our continued success and growth we are expanding our Production team and now have vacancies for two experienced, talented and motivated AV technicians to join our close knit-team of technical professionals.

THE ROLE

As an integral part of the technical production team you will be expected to fulfil a wide range of key tasks to support the technical production and warehouse operations for the company. You will be involved in the preparation, setup and operation of a wide range of Stage Set, Audio, Video, Lighting, Rigging and IT equipment

Key duties

- Providing support to Production Managers
- Taking the technical lead on small – medium events
- Check in and check out equipment using rental software
- Prep and de-prep equipment in and out of the warehouse
- On-site setup, operation and dismantling of AV equipment
- Maintenance and servicing of equipment including PAT testing and repairs
- Production of scale floorplans, using Visio / AutoCAD
- Ensure equipment is safe and secure at all times

everything is possible

- Delivery of equipment to event venues using company vans
- Booking of freelancers
- Liaising with suppliers, booking X-hire equipment
- Loading and unloading of vans / trucks
- Travel around the UK providing technical support on events
- To administer the systems and procedures provided for the management and tracking of equipment and assets
- To obtain quotations, place orders and organise cross hire equipment and book freelance crew and sub-contractors where appropriate.
- Compiling AV quotes and client liaison.
- To create and maintain cost-schedules for projects.
- Undertake site inspections and reports

THE CANDIDATE

We are looking for exceptional AV technicians to join our talented and versatile team. You should have a strong technical background across all AV disciplines, a pro-active attitude and above all a willingness to get involved and make things happen.

In return we offer an excellent opportunity to develop your experience both technically and more broadly across production management, all within a supportive team environment.

You will be able to demonstrate a track record within the live events industry, having worked with similar agencies or freelance in the delivery of conferences and events for public, private and third sector clients for at least 2 years.

You will thrive under pressure and be highly motivated to work as both a self-starter and as part of a larger team on more complex projects. A passion for all things AV is essential to ensure we continue to be at the forefront in our industry.

WHO WE ARE?

Glasgows is a leading events, film and digital agency with complimentary in-house services including events management, production, creative, web development and much more. We've built a solid reputation over 33 years as being a number one choice for our range of high-profile clients, delivering exciting solutions where "everything is possible"!

This is an exciting opportunity for the right people. It is not a traditional 9–5, events are held across the UK and the ability to travel and stay overnight frequently, is prerequisite. A full, clean UK driving license and experience driving vans is essential.

WHAT WE'RE OFFERING

The position carries an excellent package, with a salary range of £22,000 to £30,000 depending on experience, plus benefits including contributory pension scheme and non-contractual profit-related bonus scheme. The post is based at our main office in Leyland.

INTERESTED?

If you possess these skills and would enjoy working in a friendly environment as part of a hard-working team, then we want to hear from you.

Please email your CV, including details pertaining to the skills/experience requirements above, along with the names of two referees from your present/previous employment and current salary details to g@glasgows.co.uk.

All applications will be treated with confidentiality.

Glasgows is an equal opportunities employer and welcomes all applications
